

In aid of Agami and Asha for Education,

ENAD presents

A young couple takes a decision to return to Kolkata from the US with a vision in their eyes and a hope in their hearts. A vision of building a high flying career and a hope to be near their families and be a source of support for their parents who are getting on in years.

What is in store for them?

Does their resolve hold up in the face of a series of misfortunes?

Do they find their near and dear ones exactly as they had left them ten years back?

They make a long journey to find their true home but do they ever find it?

To visualize a tale of hopes, anticipations, frustrations and conflicts of dreams with reality watch
